FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

REGAL IS ONLY MANUFACTURER TO RANK HIGHEST IN TWO BOAT SEGMENTS IN J.D. POWER AND ASSOCIATES 2007 STUDY

February 15, 2006 – Miami Beach, FL – Regal has been ranked “Highest in Customer Satisfaction for Express Cruisers (24-33 feet)” in the prestigious J.D. Power and Associates 2007 Boat Competitive Information Study. Previously, this segment has been dominated by the largest boat manufacture in the U.S. For the second year in a row, Regal has also captured the small runabout segment by ranking “Highest in Customer Satisfaction with Small Runabouts (16-19 feet)”. The awards ceremony took place today at the Miami International Boat Show.

“We are excited and grateful for the continued recognition from J.D. Power and Associates, and for the support of our loyal customers,” said Duane Kuck, president and CEO of Regal Marine. “These awards demonstrate that our team in Orlando, Florida and Valdosta, Georgia, the boats they build and our dealers around the world are fulfilling our most important mission – creating an exceptional boating experience for our customer.”

The J.D. Power and Associates Boat Competitive Information Study, now in its sixth year, measures owner satisfaction with new boats among 76 brands in seven different boat segments: Bass, Coastal Fishing, Express Cruisers (24-33 feet), Pontoon, Ski/Wakeboard, Small Runabouts (16-19 feet) and Large Runabouts (20-29 feet). Overall customer satisfaction index scores are based on performance in eight factors for small runabouts, including engine, ride/handling, helm/IP, design/styling, sound system, maintenance, water sports, fishing, and seven factors for express cruisers, including cabin, engine, ride/handling, helm/IP, design/styling, sound system, maintenance.
